

Yan's Journey

1

In the quiet town of Jiangxi, Yan spends her days in her small apartment reading books. Despite living with a distant father who works long hours and an absent mother, Yan finds comfort in her studies. She dreams of escaping her working-class background through education.

Yan notices that her classmate, Lily, comes from a well-off family. Determined to improve her chances for future opportunities, Yan befriends Lily and starts observing her interactions with other students. She learns valuable social skills while keeping her distance.

Through Lily's guidance, Yan participates in a science fair. She wins first prize for her project on renewable energy. This victory boosts Yan's confidence and attracts the attention of teachers who notice her potential.

Encouraged by her success, Yan decides to apply for a prestigious university. She faces several rejections but remains determined. With support from her friends and teachers, she eventually gets accepted.

Yan starts her university life. She excels academically and forms meaningful friendships. Despite the challenges, she remains true to her ambition and works hard towards achieving her goals.

Hard work and resilience can lead to success, even when faced with obstacles.
