

Lily and the Brave Dragon

Lily is riding her favorite horse through the village when she hears a loud roar. A dragon appears above the village, causing chaos and fear among the villagers.

Lily climbs onto a nearby rock and takes aim at the dragon.
She shoots her arrow with all her might, hitting the dragon's wing. The village cheers for Lily, who waves back.

Lily rides her horse towards the dragon, using her bow and arrow to distract it. She helps the villagers gather their belongings, preparing to leave the village for safety.

Lily and the villagers travel to a safer village. They share stories of their adventure with Lily at the front. She is celebrated as a hero.

Facing your fears head-on can lead to surprising bravery and help others.
